A recent guest at the Warren Jones home was his sister Mrs May Scott of Kimberley, B. C.

Mr and Mrs Ralph Frazer of Vancouver Island, have been guests at the home of Mrs Sara Frazer while in town for his son's wedding.

Mr and Mrs Claude Baker were hosts at a get-together recently when the entire Baker family enjoyed a party in honor of Mrs Hazel Kiely.

Mr and Mrs Leonard Watson and family left on Friday for Spokane, Washington and surrounding points where they will visit the Oliver and Donal McLeans before coming home by way of Creston, B. C.

Gerald Litchfield Weds Australian Girl In Cardston Temple

A mid summer wedding was recently solemnized in the Alberta Temple when Velma Angus, daughter of Mr and Mrs A. N. Ostlin of Western Australia, became the bride of, Gerald, son of Mr and Mrs Ern Litchfield. The marriage was performed by President Smith.

A semi formal gown designed with a lace bodice and peter pan collar, and a skirt of net over taffeta, was chosen by the bride, while her finger tip veil misted from a dainty coronet. The bridal bouquet was made up of white gladioli and stephanots.

Pretty pastel gowns were worn by Verna Crane, Maid of Honor, and Margaret Henderson and Maureen Litchfield with each girl carrying a matching bouquet of sweet peas and peonies. Also attending the bride were little Randy Sherwood and Judy Shaw.

Best Man was Rulon Litchfield with Glen and Doug Litchfield also attending the groom.

A powder blue frock was chosen by the groom's mother for the occasion, complemented by a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's table looked beautifully with the cake encircled by smilax and dark pink moss roses. This was flanked by white tapers.

After an entertaining program at the Lethbridge Stake House where the Reception was held, the bride donned a white linen suit and black accessories for their trip to Glacier Park. They are now making their home in Champion where the groom is employed at the meat market.

We were very happy to have Mr and Mrs Wally Phillips and daughters Elaine and Muriel, of Foremost, visit our printing shop while they were here last week on their way to Waterton.

Margaret Bridge, Kathrine Keeler and Louise Kenney and families spent a few days in Waterton this week while "daddies went a-fishin'".

The Bob Brandleys were hosts Sunday evening to their Study Class when an interesting lesson was presented by the host.

A very enjoyable trip to Banff was had by Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Litchfield and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Norcutt, last week. While at the mountains they spent a few hours visiting Doug who know them while on his mission in Montana.

Everyone who attends the Arizona Reunion is invited to attend the party at Waterton Lakes on Saturday, July 31st. It starts at 11 o'clock and it is a pot luck lunch.

Mrs Myrtle Jensen entertained at a Quilting Party in honor of Mrs Hazel Kiely last week, at which a real "gab fest" was enjoyed by by old friends while they worked. A lovely lunch was served to Janet Heninger, Louine Brammer, Moselle Baker, Lapriel McNeely, Lois Hall, Loya Heggie, Jane McMullen, and June Fawns and Hazel.

Mrs Lottie Knight who is now living in Salt Lake visited in town briefly with Mr and Mrs Ellis Heninger before going on to Calgary to visit her son Jesse and family.

Mrs Marva Nalder and children recently motored to Provo to join her husband for the last part of his summer school there.

She was accompanied by Mona and Geraldine Palmer who are also attending summer school.

Bill Nalder spent the week-end home with his wife and family after two weeks of summer school in Edmonton.

The Ira McBrides, Thomas Mendenhalls, Golden Snows, Reed Litchfields Myron Holmes, Irvn Fawns, Lavern Anderson, Myrtle Williams, Wilford Meldrum got together at the Andrew Walton home this week to enjoy a visit with Mr and Mrs Cyril Layne.

Mr and Mrs Kay Swenson and four children of Seattle Washington have been visiting Mrs. Jane McMullen for a few days this week while visiting relatives in Southern Alberta. Jane and her husband were close friends of the Swensons when they all lived in Idaho.

While here they also visited at the Arledge Hill home.

Mr and Mrs Cyril Lane visited with old friends in town this week after an absence of about four years. Their home is now in Long Beach, California.

Mr and Mrs Herb Wilde were the honored guests at a Farewell Party in the form of a Weiner Roast at the Pot Hole on Tuesday with the Jack McLeans, Grant Halls, Shirley Kinsey, Karl Wildes and Casey Ralphs enjoying the evening of fun. The Mutt Ralphs would have like to, as well, but the chosen site for the weiner roast as far as they were concerned, was an elusive as the proverbial needle in the haystack.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Court are enjoying a visit from her parents Mr and Mrs Roy Rolfsen and Glen and Don of Salt Lake.

Gordon Anderson, Joe Keeler, Bob Brandley and Jim Bridge returned on Thursday after an enjoyable, if not too profitable fishing trip in the mountains for four days.

The Second Ward Boy Scouts under the leadership of Jay Attwood, Ray Jensen and Howard Hicken have returned from a camping trip to Waterton.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Stone and Billy and Dennis spent a few days in Calgary the end of last week, as well as a day in Banff.

On Monday they then motored to Waterton to complete their vacation.

A few days in Great Falls was also enjoyed by Mrs. Harry Stevens and Madeline Patrick of Winnipeg who was spending a three week vacation with her sister.

Mr and Mrs Ike Kitchen are enjoying a week's vacation in Calgary where they are visiting Mrs. Kitchen's mother, Mrs. R. Loewin, as well as a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon French.

As an actress, commentator, and singer, the twenty-five year old artist has had leading roles in many U.S. and Canadian theatre productions, including "Voice of the Turtle," "Present Laughter," "Taming of the Shrew," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "Macbeth," and "She Stoops to Conquer." She has appeared in many drama and variety shows on both CBC television and radio, has done extensive repertory work and appeared as "Rosie" in Gratien Gelinas' film of "Ti-Coq."

Mr and Mrs A. L. Frazer have enjoyed a visit from her sister and family, Mr and Mrs Robert Cartwright of Lethbridge, and her brother John Lugos of Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Litchfield are enjoying a visit from their fourteen year old niece, Kathrine Coombs of Oakland, California who flew here from Salt Lake. She plans to be here about a month visiting her various relatives.

Mr and Mrs Karl Wilde accompanied by Mr. and Mrs Burk of Vauxhall spent a few days motoring to Kallispell and Whitefish and around-about, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Heggie and family have returned after a very relaxing and enjoyable holiday that took them to Kallispell and Whitefish and home by way of Elko, B. C.

After a brief stop at home, they left for Edmonton where they spent a few days visiting relatives and sight seeing. For the last few days of their vacation they just rested in Waterton.

Temple Wedding For Donna Christensen And Kenneth Milner

The marriage of Donna Christensen to Kenneth Milner was performed at the Alberta Temple recently by Pres. Lloyd Cahoon in the presence of close friends and relatives. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Bill Christensen while his parents are Mr and Mrs Marshall Milner.

Over the net strapless bodice of her gown, she wore a lace bolero type jacket, the collar of which was adorned with sequins and seed pearls. The long sleeves were edged with a ruffle of net. Added interest to the heavy satin skirt was given the inserts of lace which matched the border of the veil which cascaded from a little lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. A white carnation centered the bouquet of white carnations, stephanots and red roses.

A blue gown was worn by the Matron of Honor, Sylvia Braithwaite with green, coral and pink shades for Joyce Milner, Marie Thompson and Gayla Christensen who was Maid of Honor. The groom's Best Man was his brother Walter assisted by Lowell Wilde.

As the many friends and relatives of the happy young couple called at the Stake House they were greeted by Mr and Mrs George Heggie Jr. and Mr and Mrs E. H. Nilsson, while Marie Lawson presided at the Guest Book. The Gift Table was arranged by Geraldine Kenney, Sandra Kirkham, Alice Wilde, Denise Dahl, June Woodhead, Joy Litchfield and Helga Milner. The bride's table was decorated with a huge bouquet of peonies placed on the tablecloth hand crocheted by the bride's mother. On either side of the bouquet, candelabra were placed with white tapers.

Mrs Gladys King and Mrs Restall showed the guests to the tables where they were served a dainty lunch. Those working behind the scene were Mesdames Iva Jensen, Larosa Kirkham, Lorelle Holt and Mary Thompson.

Mrs Emma Dahl played the wedding march as the bride and groom entered the Recreation Hall for the program. emceed by a life-time friend of the groom, Glen Litchfield. The program consisted of solos by Lowell Wilde of Welling, Readings by Helen Piegras, Piano solos by Hazel Fairbanks, Reading by Lucy Stevens and piano solos by Herb Bishop after which Kleth Braithwaite paid the Tribute to the Bride, with the groom responding.

The Invocation was offered by Bishop Jensen with Bishop Snow the Benediction.

A red linen dress with white stole and accessories was donned by the bride for their honeymoon trip to Waterton. She wore a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Harry Stevens and her sister Madeline Patrick were among those enjoying the Stampede in Calgary this year and for them this was their first experience at a big rodeo. They then motored on to Banff and home by way of the beautiful Crows Nest Pass.

Pres. and Mrs J. H. Walker had as their dinner guests on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bennett and family for a very pleasant evening.

Four-year-old Diane had been playing at the home of her cousins who lived a little way up the road from her house. Since it had grown dark, Auntie gave her a flashlight and stood out on the porch to make sure she reached home safely.

Diane, holding the light carefully and stepping rather reluctantly down the path that led between the two houses, called back, "Auntie, this flashlight doesn't take care of all the darkness."

A visitor has been making merry with English spelling. One of his suggestions is that "fish" ought to be spelt "ghoti."

He argues that the "gh" is pronounced as in "rough," the "o" as in "women" and the "ti" as in "nation." So obviously "ghoti" spells "fish."

My husband and I have just returned from a short vacation, visiting Kimberly, Rock Lake, Kallispel and other places. It is not our trip I want to speak about but the courtesy and kindness of the people we met. No one seemed to be exceeding the speed limit and there were no road hogs. We arrived in Kallispel at a bad time. There was a circus in town and the Eagle's Lodge was having a convention hence not a room to be found. We began to think we'd have to drive on but we stopped at a Motel where the proprietor had forgotten to put the "no" in front of the vacancy sign. They had even rented their 14 year old girls room, much to her disgust. But the lady of the Motel got busy on the phone and found a room for us at a friend's. I thought this was a great kindness and the room we had was fit for a queen.

We visited the Hungry Horse Dam, the second largest in the U. S., which was just completed after five years of labor. It was an immense dam over 500 feet high, a lot higher than the Lethbridge bridge, and a sight worth seeing if you pass that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dixon and family of Saskatoon spent the week end in the district visiting relatives.
